

THE CATHERINE SEVILLE LAW FUND

‘Catherine taught me a great deal, and not just about law. I remember going to collect my first year results from her. She asked me how I thought I had done and I said "I did my best". She gave me a very stern look and said "Emma, you don't know what your best is, so don't tell me that you have reached your potential. All you have done is set down the building blocks."

No-one had ever put it to me like that before. It stuck with me throughout my time at Newnham (and ever since) and helped me realise that I shouldn't limit my own expectations of what I could achieve.'
